

Analyzing Political Cartoons

1. What does the snake represent? _____
_____
2. What do the children represent? _____
_____
3. What are the children doing? _____
_____
4. What does 'gag rule' mean? _____
_____
5. Is this cartoon supporting or opposing the Alien and Sedition Acts? How do you know?
_____
_____

Review

Identify if each statement below is true or false. If it is false, re-write it to create a correct statement.

1. By 1800, John Adams had lost support of the Federalist party because the fighting with France had ended. _____

---

---

2. Even if a state disagreed with the Alien & Sedition Acts, it still had to enforce the federal laws.

---

---

---

3. Fighting with France increased during Adams's presidency because the US signed an alliance with Great Britain. _____

---

---

4. Democratic-Republicans supported the French cause, while Federalists wanted to maintain trade with Great Britain. _____

---

---

5. Congress was given the power to determine if someone had committed treason.

---

---

---

6. Even though Adams won the 1796 election, he was not well prepared to be president.

---

---

---